

Community Health Worker

Full-Time Position Available

MHP Salud, a national non-profit agency conducting health education and outreach in underserved Latino communities, is currently seeking motivated, energetic, organized, and focused Community Health Workers for a program that serves Starr County. Full-time position, up to 40 hours a week. Responsibilities may include but not limited to outreach to Colonia residents, health education on a variety of topics, health assessments, referrals to partner agencies for assistance for insurance eligibility and application assistance. Applicants who can read, write, and speak Spanish and English are strongly preferred; fluency in spoken Spanish is required. Applicants must also be computer literate and have two years' applicable work experience. Community Health Worker (CHW) State of Texas Certification and experience working with the community are highly preferred. Salary range: $16.00-$16.99/hour

Complete application online at www.mhpsalud.org and attach the following components.

1. Completed MHP job application from website (<http://mhpsalud.org/get-involved/job-postings/>)
2. Resume
3. Names and contact information for three work references

INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS or automated resume only applications will not be considered. To review full job description, see our website (www.mhpsalud.org). Review of materials begins March 10, 2017 and continues until the positions are filled.