

Community Health Worker

Multiple Full-Time Position Available

MHP Salud, a national non-profit agency conducting health education and outreach in underserved Latino communities, is currently seeking a motivated, energetic, organized, and focused Community Health Workers for programs that serve Hidalgo, Cameron, Starr and Willacy Counties. Multiple full-time positions available, up to 40 hours a week. Responsibilities may include but not limited to outreach to Colonia residents, carrying out home visits, data entry, diabetes education, making referrals to other community agencies, lead group education sessions which include parents and caregivers of children from 8 to 13, promote and monitor physical activities, work with schools, community organizations and form partnerships for providing services to residents of the community. Applicants who can read, write, and speak Spanish and English are strongly preferred; fluency in spoken Spanish is required. Applicants must also be computer literate and have two years' applicable work experience. Experience working with the community with Colonia residents are highly preferred. Salary range depending on experience (Grade 2 – 4).

Complete application online at www.mhpsalud.org and attach the following components.

1. Completed MHP job application from website (<http://mhpsalud.org/get-involved/job-postings/>)
2. Resume
3. Names and contact information for three work references

INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS or automated resume only applications will not be considered. To review full job description, see our website (www.mhpsalud.org). Review of materials begins June 16, 2017 and continues until the positions are filled.